

Dr. Chris Miller

CHIEF ACADEMIC OFFICER

The Blue Ridge ISD Board of Trustees approved the superintendent's recommendation of Dr. Chris Miller for the Chief Academic Officer position. Dr. Miller is currently the principal at Highland Park Middle School. Prior to that position, Dr. Miller was the high school principal in Blue Ridge. Matt Kimball, superintendent, noted Dr. Miller's experience, familiarity with Blue Ridge, and innovative leadership as key characteristics that set him apart for the position.

Dr. Miller will begin July 1, 2022 and will lead the teaching and learning efforts of the district which include curriculum, instruction, and assessments. His innovative, student-centered approach to teaching and learning has been highly successful in his previous positions and will prove invaluable in his new position in Blue Ridge ISD. Matthew Todd, BRISD Assistant Superintendent, will move from curriculum and instruction to leading operations and student services.
